A choice of wedding packages

While a standard Civil Wedding (including Registrar + licence fees only) can easily be arranged, a special Wedding Package (including additional transport to/from the legal offices + personal extras) is the ideal way to ensure a truly memorable wedding ceremony. Our dedicated consultants will tailor-make all the perfect arrangements, offer all the necessary expertise and will source the best deal suitable for you.

Booking your wedding

After choosing the wedding destination, our consultants will require two different date options. Once the registrar has approved the documents, the preferred wedding date will be confirmed in writing, detailing your Wedding Package and optional extras. A useful table is illustrated below to give you an idea of the necessary documents you will need for your wedding abroad. It is imperative that the original documents are taken with you on your travels as they have to be presented before the ceremony. Additionally, clear copies of the same documents are required at least 10 weeks before travel, along with your requests for optional extras.

Renewal of vows & wedding anniversary

If you would like to take the special opportunity and renew your vows, celebrate a wedding anniversary or even partake in a blessing to signify your feelings, then we can propose some unforgettable options at one of our refined destination resorts and be sure to benefit from a special selection of gifts, package discounts and complimentary offers.

Sri Lanka Tailor Made Holiday & Maldives Multi Centre - 15 days/14 nights.

This option is best if your main reason for visiting Sri Lanka is to see the main sights, some wildlife, and experience the culture, rather than just being a simple beach holiday. It is done with your own car and driver, who will take you to all the best places.

The main places to go are Habarana, Kandy, Nuwara Eliya, and Yala National Park, although Yala is a very long journey so is often missed out.

When you are in Habarana, you're close to Sigiriya Rock, Dambulla Caves, Minneriya Wildlife Park, and the old capital of Polonnaruwa. There are lots of nature activities such as boat safaris and trips to see wildlife.

When you are in Kandy, visit the Temple of the Tooth, drive around the lake, see the Botanical Gardens, and enjoy the relaxed ambience of the town.

And when you are in Nuwara Eliya, the scenery is wonderful and there are tea plantations to visit.

So with this option, you stay in 3 or more places, with a car and driver to take you around, doing the transfers between the hotels and taking you to see the sites. A night in the seaside town of Negombo is also usually required before and/or after your tour due to flight schedules.

Here is our recommended itinerary for a 14 night twin centre Sri Lanka and Maldives holiday. This is entirely flexible of course, and you can change any of the durations, or even miss out the Sri Lanka beach hotel altogether.

Day 1: Negombo 1 night at Jetwing Beach

Day 2 -5: Habarana 3 nights at Cinnamon Lodge

Day 5 – 7: Kandy 2 nights at the Earls Regency Hotel

Day 7 – 8: Nuwara Eliya 1 night at the Tea Factory Hotel

Day 8– 9: Negombo 1 night back at Jetwing Beach (necessary before a flight to the Maldives)

Day: 9- 15: Maldives 6 nights at Kurumba Island

The Sri Lankan part of the trip is best done with a private car and driver. They will be at your disposal for the whole of the touring part of your holiday, while normal transfers are included to and from the airport.

India & Maldives Multi Centre - 13 days/12 nights

Undoubtedly a winning combination, this itinerary takes you on an incredible journey through Kerala, followed by a stay on an idyllic Maldivian island. Explore one of the oldest Jewish settlements in India, stay in a gorgeous spice garden, cruise down the pristine Backwaters and take a dip into the crystal-clear waters of the Maldives.

Days 1 - 3: Arrive Cochin, Kerala, India Transfer by private vehicle to your designated resort.. enjoy 3 days of relaxation and take some of the local traditions such as Ayurveda treatments, gastronomic seafood dining plus the beautiful local sights.

Days 3 - 5: Kanam, India Drive down from the hills to a plantation village. You can also enjoy a full day with the resident elephant, learning how they work in the forest with the help of their mahout.

Ride through the forest on elephant back and help to give her a bath at the end of the day.

Day 5 - 6: Backwaters, India Experience a backwater cruise through tranquil waters, dotted with hamlets and lush green fields. A heavenly experience staying on-board a luxurious houseboat equipped with all you could require!

Days 6 - 13: Maldives, Maldives Stay at LUX Maldives. The Maldives are famous for their marine diversity, especially for whale-sharks, which average well over 20 feet in length. The country has some of the most fabulous sites for diving in the world, and luxurious LUX Maldives is the ideal base for exploring this piece of paradise.

Oman & Zanzibar

Multi Centre. Great Value. 3 nights Al Waha at Shangri-La Oman (Breakfast) 7 nights Mapenzi Beach Club Zanzibar (Half Board). Top Seller 3 nights The Chedi Muscat (Breakfast) 7 nights The Residence Zanzibar (Half Board)

Day 1-4: Arrive Muscat Met on arrival at Muscat airport and transfer to your hotel for a three night stay - we have a range to choose from (see page 82 to 83), and your length of stay in Muscat is flexible. Spend the next few days exploring Muscat. Mutrah's Corniche runs along the waterfront and is very picturesque.

Day 5: Muscat to Zanzibar Return transfer to the airport for your onward flight to Zanzibar. Arrive at Zanzibar airport and transfer to your chosen resort for a seven night stay. A full range of resorts is available, and alternative durations are also possible (see page 95).

Days 6-11: Zanzibar Spend the rest of your time on Zanzibar relaxing at your resort. Perhaps visit Jozani Forest, the only remaining natural forest on the island.

THE PERFECT TROPICAL ISLAND HIDEAWAY!

Mauritius epitomises the perfect tropical island hideaway with an endless list of plus points to suit every potential visitor:

There's an excellent argument to be made that Mauritius is the perfect holiday destination for the British market. Right now this is even more true as there are some great offers out there, making the island even better value.

It is a long haul, but at about 12-hours flying time, not excessively so – just enough to give a real sense of getting away from it all – and once there holidaymakers find a tropical Indian Ocean island with great year-round weather.

It has British roots and the fact that the Dutch, French and pirates also had a hand in the creation of today's nation of Mauritius gives the destination an additional zing. Its melting pot mix of Indian, African, Chinese and French people has created a truly warm and welcoming environment for visitors and a dedication to hospitality that is amongst the highest in the world.

Having never succumbed to the lure of the mass market, Mauritius has developed an infrastructure of resorts that are stylish – often using echoes of local or Colonial architecture – and broad enough to satisfy the needs of all sectors of the tourism industry.

Couples, honeymooners and special occasion holidays are one of the strongest markets for the island but with kids' clubs flourishing in most resorts families have taken to Mauritius with a vengeance.

A proliferation of quality golf courses over recent years has added golfers to the list of holidaymakers heading off to the island, while the warm Indian Ocean is a welcoming playground for divers, sailors, snorkellers, kite surfers and others seeking fun above and below the water's surface.

And with three airlines offering quality scheduled non-stop services from the UK, getting there is a breeze as well!

Welcome to a tropical island hideaway. Welcome to Mauritius!

Nestled in flower-filled tropical gardens, nothing is run of the mill at this daringly different inland retreat where the charming owners, are much in evidence. Set at an altitude of 400m in undulating green hills, 10 minutes' walk from sleepy Chamarel village in the southwest, which Malcolm de Chazal, the Mauritian poet, once called home. The eco-lodges and suites are nestled discreetly among mango trees, frangipani and hibiscus and are individually decorated with hand chosen pieces. There are no in-room TVs here. It's worth shelling out the extra for a suite, generous terrace, plunge pool and all the mod cons. Top of the range is the Piton Canot Suite, which with its breath-taking views from the gazebo and swimming pool, is amazing value. Food is a highlight, with an open kitchen and daily changing menu that features local produce and authentic Mauritian specialties.

Zilwa Attitude

'Otentik' Mauritius accessible to all...

An exclusive site on the northern coast of Mauritius, in Calodyne, this is different and unique with its concept art de vivre by the sea. Zilwa means "islander" in Creole, and this rustic chic all-inclusive hotel offers a taste of island life in its "experiences", such as a dawn boat with a local fisherman, Creole lessons under the trees or a home-cooked dinner in a local home. The contemporary rustic chic architecture and Mauritian design of the hotel take inspiration from the traditional 'local Lakaz homes'. The resort has generous facilities, including three great pools with palm islands, and a spa offering a sunset Mauritian massage on nearby Ti Zil island. Set in crescent-shaped buildings facing the sea, the rustic rooms are chic with rough-hewn walls, wax-coated floors and driftwood-inspired furniture. A range from Chinese and Mauritian cuisine to a romantic beachside à la carte. The highlight is a simple buffet lunch on Gran Zil private island (not included in the all-inclusive rate), where drinks are served in ceramic mugs and octopus curry is ladled from traditional pots on the ground. MAURITIUS & BEYOND - REUNION ISLAND

While off the beaten track for many tourists, Reunion is the ideal destination for those looking for natural beauty and dramatic landscapes that are just waiting to be explored. Dramatic mountain ranges are a feature of the island, including the active volcano Piton de la Fournaise, whilst there is also a selection of impressive beaches lining the coast. Ideal for those who enjoy going off the beaten track, piton hikes, adventure sports tied in with rural creole culture then Reunion will be nothing short of memorable.

Reunion – From Pitons to Beaches

This two-week Reunion driving tour combines the active volcano, Piton de la Fournaise, breathtaking scenery and picturesque mountain towns in the three Cirques, with a beach holiday where you can dive, surf, play golf, windsurf and paraglide.

Day 1-2 Hell-Bourg - Cirque de Salazie A Day 1 Heathrow – Singapore Non-stop overnight flight from Arrive in Réunion and collect your hire car. Drive east, through lush fields of sugar cane and past Tamil temples built by plantation workers, to Hell-Bourg, voted one of the most beautiful villages in France. Hell-Bourg is the main settlement in the lovely Cirque de Salazie and has many delightful Creole buildings here. (B)

Day 3 Cirque de Salazie Salazie is the lushest of the three amphitheatres. Its 100 waterfalls plummet down spectacular gorges and cliffs like giant, silver ribbons. Walk to the hot springs, Les Sources Pétrifiantes. (B)

Day 4 Drive to the outstanding viewpoint at Le Point du Jour and the nearby cascade. Go canyoning, mountain-biking or climbing or explore the Forest of Bélouve, with its endemic silvery tamarind trees. (B)

Day 5 Bébour Forest Drive south and cross the high plains, the area that separates the three cirques from the volcano. Nature enthusiasts should explore Bébour Forest, with its carpet of white lilies and dominated by enormous, prehistoric-looking tree-fems. It is possible to see all the locally endemic birds and a variety of rare plants during one walk in Bébour Forest. Pause in Bourg Murat to visit the volcano centre. Then drive to the village of St Philippe on the verdant, tropical southeast coast. (B)

Day 6 La Rivière Langevin & St Pierre From Villa Belle you could visit St Pierre, with its charming fishing port, 19th-century dry dock, and craft market. Walk to La Rivière Langevin with its amazing waterfalls. Do the botanical ramble at Mare-Longue and the Garden of Perfume & Spices (1½ hour-walk in the middle of tropical trees, flowers and spices) near St Philippe. (B)

Day 7 Piton de la Fournaise For an adventurous day take an early morning drive to Piton de la Fournaise & the lava flows. Explore the awesome volcano, Piton de la Fournaise ('peak of the furnace'), which has erupted several times in recent years. In this part of the island, the rugged coast is one of black pebble beaches or black volcanic cliffs. (B)

Day 8 – 12 Hermitage-les-Bains Drive west along the coastal highway and drive to Hermitage-les-Bains to spend some relaxation time beach side. LUX* Ile de la Réunion - The hotel has the largest pool on the island and a choice of four restaurants. The beach is protected by a coral reef and the snorkelling is very good. Diving, and surfing, golf and paragliding are available nearby. Drive up to Le Maito, on the rim of the Cirque de Mafate for breathtaking views of the peaks and into the cirque itself. You could make a day hike along the rim to the summit of Le Grand Benard or descend to the village of Roche Plate – or from St Gilles, take a helicopter trip into the cirque. (B)

SEYCHELLES

Far out in the Indian Ocean, a thousand miles from Africa, the islands of the Seychelles were, General Gordon of Khartoum insisted, the setting of the 'Garden of Eden'.

Encircled by seas of the purest blue, these 100 or so islands lie scattered across the Indian Ocean. Some, of granite, rear dramatically from sea to sky, draped in the rich vegetation and brilliant flowers of the tropics. Others are formed of coral, and rise just feet above the sea. Wherever you travel in the Seychelles palm, Takamaka and Casuarina trees, lagoons and coral sand beaches are rarely far away. Centuries of relative isolation have given the islands their own unique ecology, too, with unusual birds and land species like the giant tortoise.

Mahé, the largest island and capital, with soaring peaks and tempting beaches and coves and tiny capital of Victoria- making it feel like the sort of place you might travel to once in a lifetime! A short flight away is Praslin Island, home to some delightfully romantic beaches and the famous Vallée de Mai, whose lush setting and unique double coconuts convinced General Gordon that here was the true Eden.

The outer islands offer something so unique to the Seychelles – embark on your own 'Robinson Crusoe' adventure on the private and exotic granite hideaways of Frégate and North Islands. Among the coral islands is dream-like Bird, habitat of many rare bird species, and a setting of dazzling sands and turquoise seas. Other named islands just simply show off their beguiling beaches, superb fishing, and mood of total privacy.

Come to the Seychelles to slow down. Come to set your watch to a gentle island lifestyle, where the mood is simple and where there are no lively resorts. Come to enjoy the Creole cuisine, the beauty of the setting. And, above all, come simply to relax . . .

What makes us different is that we can offer:

- Classical beachfront hotels from 3 to 5 star quality
- Bijou-style chic hotels in delightful secluded locations
- Spa Resorts to relax both body and mind
- Villas with a choice of self-catering
- Private Islands and Lodges for the ultimate Seychelles experience
- Sailing & Yacht Charter
- Romantic Wedding & Honeymoon in all resorts
- Special interest holidays- birding, walking, flora & fauna

SEYCHELLES - ISLAND HOPPING

Island hopping is the only way to see and experience the Seychelles. With over 115 islands scattered like confetti across the Indian Ocean, the Seychelles has endless options for some great island combinations. With frequent (and short!) flights connecting the smaller islands to Mahé, or private helicopter option, your holiday can be as leisurely as you choose.

We do recommend combining Mahé or Praslin with one of the smaller islands for a real 'Robinson Crusoe' escape. Begin the journey in Mahé, the main island, and enjoy the tiny capital and the splendour of the luxury resorts highlighted in this collection. Combine your stay with Cousine for the diving, Cerf Island for the immense nature reserve or even opt for a castaway experience at Denis Island or the penultimate, Fregate Island.

Please ask our Sales Consultants to design your own personal itinerary. We have made some unique suggestions below in which of course you can select your own hotels to suit your own requirements.

MALDIVES

Comfort-loving Crusoes will revel in the Maldives mood of barefoot sophistication.

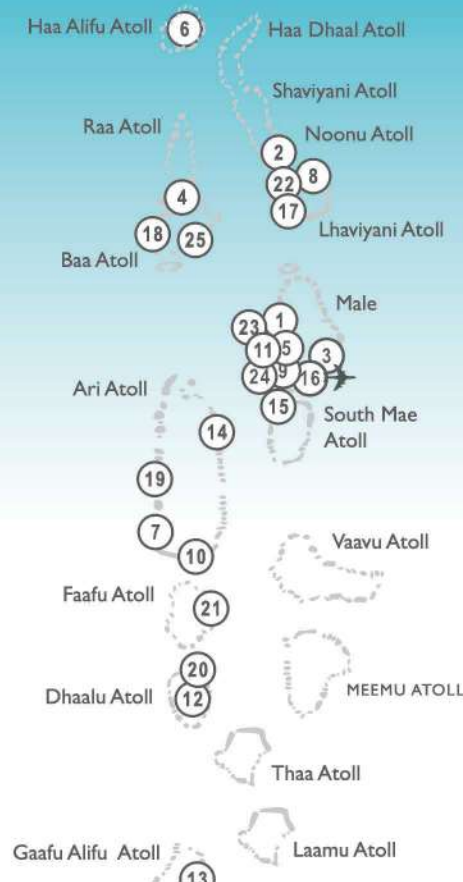

To this add an intriguing culture and language, shaped by Arab, Indian and Sri Lankan influences and even by British ones, too (the Brits were here until 1965), so non-Dhivehi speakers can relax! When it comes to description, it's hard to resist traditional lyrical metaphors about green-and-gold jewels scattered over velvet seas of sapphire blue. That's exactly how this spectacular cluster of coral atolls appears when first seen from the air and yes, the sea really is that translucent blue seen in the photos.

The Maldives' remoteness – creates the sense of a world apart. Distance, time and lifestyle can seem like those of a community bypassed by a bigger brasher beyond. Most established hotel resorts are located amid three atoll clusters nearest to the capital (Malé), whilst many newer ones are scattered on more distant atolls, reached by seaplane or scheduled local flight. Few of these palm-edged and lagoon-encircled enclaves need more than minutes to stroll across. You'll expend most of your energy on the resorts' main raison d'etre – those fabulous watersports.

SRI LANKA & INDIA

'Serendib' was the one-time name for the ancient island of Sri Lanka whence 'serendipity', the enviable art of chancing upon pleasant and unexpected discoveries. On the map no more than a teardrop at the tip of Southern India, Sri Lanka's 25,000 square miles encompass a superb natural environment. Greatest lure of all for today's visitor are the superb beaches in the south-west, ideal for an informal and easygoing holiday lifestyle rather than sophistication and luxury, and enhanced by the friendliness of the island's smiling people.

INDIA

The vast and colourful theatre that is India almost defies the imagination spanning more than a million square miles, from the tropical waters of the Indian Ocean and Arabian Sea to the snow-capped peaks of the Himalayas. Its physical scale and improbable contrasts are replicated in the staggering diversity, not just of its scenery but also of its vibrant cultures and exotic customs and lifestyles born of five thousand years of continuous civilisation.

Elaborate palaces and ancient castles bring the echoes of India's eventful history dramatically alive. The tropical forests and jungles of sprawling game reserves to fabulous golden beaches, distinctive architecture and fine resort hotels and fabulous food. India is a melting pot of everything one desires... you are bound to leave a piece of you behind.

DUBAI Second largest of the seven autonomous states which make up the United Arab Emirates and a premium leisure destination in the Middle East. Dubai basks in a dry subtropical climate on the southern shore of the Arabian Gulf, where long white sand beaches are lapped by the azure seas of the Gulf. Soaring resort hotels have become world icons offering some of the highest standards you'll find anywhere, complimenting state of the art facilities including stylish shopping malls, world-class golf and even a massive ski slope making Dubai the only place you can ski on water, sand and snow in the same day! But the old Dubai is never far away – exotic souks, irresistible bargains and superb desert-and-mountain scenery.

ABU DHABI Both capital city and largest of the United Arab Emirates, Abu Dhabi lies on the central western coast of the Arabian Gulf. Like its neighbour Dubai, the Emirate has seen rapid growth in the past few years, though its history is relatively short having developed from a small fishing village.

RAS AL KHAIMAH The most northerly Emirate of the United Arab Emirates, Ras Al Khaimah's history extends into antiquity. Fishing, trading and agriculture form the backbone of the economy but the leisure traveller has recently discovered the destination attracted by the slow pace of life, some dramatic scenery and of course the warm, dry climate.

OMAN

A LAND OF TRUE BEAUTY AND HIDDEN TREASURE

The ultimate Arabian experience! Situated on the southeast tip of the Arabian Peninsula, extending from its northern tip with the Quoin Islands north of Musandam to the borders of Yemen in the south, the Sultanate of Oman has a coastline stretching some 2,092 km beside the warm waters of both the Arabian Gulf and Indian Ocean. Its dramatic natural beauty and strong cultural heritage gives it tremendous appeal to those in search of somewhere unique but where tourism has had little impact on the environment. The country ensures that such development will only be at a very measured pace.

The Hajar Mountain area divides the coastal region from the sand desert of Wahiba Sands to the east. Throughout this fascinating country there are various landscapes, each with their own character and climate.

Musandam, in the far north has dramatic mountains and majestic fjords whilst the deep south is noted for its golden sand beaches, magnificent desert scenery and lush coastal vegetation. The Omani waters offer a variety of sea safaris and water sports, inviting guests to sample deep sea diving, game fishing and even dolphin watching.

In this brochure we aim to bring you a taste of Oman; combining the exploration of Muscat from a comfortable beach to historic south packed with culture and traditions. Oman will keep you longing for more!

OMAN MATTERS

JOURNEY TIME 7 hours POPULATION 2.5 Million (approx.) CAPITAL Muscat TIME DIFFERENCE GMT +4 hours
CURRENCY Omani Rial AIRPORT Seeb International ELECTRICITY 220-240 volts LANGUAGE Arabic & English

Muscat became the capital city of the Sultanate and residence of His Majesty The Sultan Qaboos relatively recently, and now spreads along 50km to the east and boasts modern buildings (blending Arabic architecture), landscaped avenues and an eclectic mix of old (ancient forts) and new. Past, present... Muscat juggles these words with brilliance.

To enhance your stay in Muscat, we recommend the following excursions:

Majestic Muscat (Half Day)

In the morning, visit the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque. Admire the chandelier made from pure Swarovski crystal and the carpet adorning the large prayer hall, made from pure Persian silk. From the Mosque, head to Mutrah to see the fishermen in action at the fish market followed by a walk around the traditional Souq. Proceed down the coast to old Muscat and learn about Omani history in the Bait al Zubair museum. From there, visit the Sultan's Al Alam Palace and the historic Jalali and Mirani forts which still guard the natural harbour.

PRICES from £49 per person

Sensuous Sunset Cruise (Half Day)

End your day with a relaxing cruise along the splendid Muscat coast seeing many of the sights from a different angle whilst contemplating the magnificent vistas. Choose between a modern catamaran and a traditional fishing dhow. On this 2 hour cruise through unspoiled seas, explanations and tourist guide are superfluous so you will be able to just relax and enjoy. As you gaze out across the sea, marvel at the changing colours of the sky and the horizon emblazoned in shades of fiery gold, red and pink.

PRICES from £49 per person

Historical Nizwa (Full Day)

Visit at the House of Amouage and visitors' center to experience one of the world's finest fragrances. Proceed to Nizwa to visit the Fort and the Souq before stopping in town for a picnic or lunch at a local restaurant. After lunch, an afternoon of stunning architecture lies ahead as you take in Bahla Fort, the oldest and first Omani fort to be built in the Islamic style, Jabreen Castle, probably the finest of Omani castles built during the late 17th century and then head up to the traditional mountain village of Al Hamra to visit Bait al Safah living museum.

PRICES from £79 per person

The Gorgeous Jabal Akhdar (Full Day)

Drive straight to Nizwa where you will visit the Fort and the Souq for a taste of the old capital. Head out to the village of Birkat al Mawz to see the old stone houses, the 17th century mosque and impressive falaj system. Stop for a picnic or lunch at a local restaurant in the village before proceeding into Wadi Madaeen and then winding up the mountain onto Saiq Plateau. Up there in the cooler air, enjoy the many sights and sounds of the Jebel Akhdar (Green Mountain in Arabic) including Wadi Bani Habib and Al Ayn. The views from the top are really breath-taking and you will take home some wonderful memories.

PRICES from £145 per person

A day at the Dunes (Full Day) Drive down to the marvellous Wadi Bani Khalid, the best known wadi of the region. The wadi has large pools of water and boulders are scattered along its course that runs with water all year round. Try to see some of the caves which are very interesting features. After a picnic or lunch in a local restaurant you will experience an introduction to desert life. On your way to meet one of the few remaining Bedu families in the heart of the beautiful Wahiba Sands, you will do some exhilarating '4x4 bashing' almost alone in the undulating dunes.

After a short bumpy ride through pools and over boulders, you will find yourself in the midst of tranquil nature with little but birdsong and the splash of tiny waterfalls. Relax and enjoy the clear refreshing pools or take a walk deeper into the wadi.

After lunch, visit the most beautiful sinkhole in the world, the cerulean waters of Bimmah Sinkhole attracts thousands of visitors every year created by the collapse of a soft limestone ceiling in an underground cavern. Day 4: Wadi Shab - Finns Beach - Wadi Tiwi - Sur - Ras Al Hadd 4WD

Breakfast and check out. Through the mountain, Wadi Shab offers visitors a charming walk through the village past impossibly blue pools of water, date and banana plantations, terraced fields and falaj system. For the brave, continue over boulders and narrow paths, abandoned villages and deeper pools until you find yourself at the water source.

After lunch, proceed to Wadi Tiwi which is similar in form to Wadi Shab before visiting Sur. The old town of Sur faces out to the sea and has an illustrious past as one of the most important ports in the region, a key point of trade with East Africa and India. Oman is immensely proud of its maritime heritage and although demand has decreased, Sur still makes boats for customers all over the world. Many turtles visit the most easterly point of the Sultanate to lay their precious eggs every year on the stunning beaches of Ras Al Hadd. To witness these turtles lay their eggs and to see hundreds of tiny hatchlings scuttling down to the sea are rare sights. Tonight you will stay in a nearby hotel and will be driven to one of the nesting sites early in the morning for your chance of seeing the turtles in action. (B/L) old quarter you can see the remains of its stately mud brick mansions, numerous mosques and watchtowers.

At Wadi Bani Khalid, water flows all year round in this beautiful and popular natural retreat. The water flowing from several springs collects in deep, clear pools that are made easily accessible by a series of paths and bridges.

After lunch, be mesmerised by the Wahiba Sands, where a trip to Wahiba Sands is the perfect way to get a taste of the storybook Arabian Desert for endless views of rosy, windswept and ever moving dunes of sands. Bedu families reside here, catch a glimpse of this lifestyle whilst sharing a coffee and dates with a Bedu family. An optional 'Dune Bashing' in a 4WD can be experienced. (B/L)

Day 6: Muscat - Nizwa - Al Hamra - Bahla - Jabreen - Muscat

After breakfast, proceed to Nizwa city with a visit of Nizwa Fort, an impressive piece of 17th century architecture whose 40m central tower soars above the rest of the building. Clamber up to the top for glorious views of the city and mountains beyond. Take a stop to Nizwa Souq where you will find Omani silver, halwa and excellent Khanjars.

Drive into the well-preserved mountain town of Al Hamra for a time warp where you will see how much or how little that life has changed with traditional mud brick houses and stony alleyways. Visit Bait Al Safah, a restored traditional house which has been changed into a living museum. After lunch visit Bahla, a listed UNESCO World Heritage site home to one of Oman's biggest and most elaborate forts featuring rooms, towers, Mosques and wells.

Proceed to Oman's most splendid Jabreen Castle. It was built during a period of peace and its simple majesty reflects that. It is less fortified than other castles in the country and gives one the sense of calm, contemplation and of being a home recently abandoned. (B/L)

Day 7: Dolphin Watching and Snorkeling

After breakfast take a trip out to sea and surround yourself by countless dolphins dancing in the waters around your boat. The sea of Oman is heavily populated with a variety of dolphins and an early morning boat trip is an excellent way to experience them at close quarters. Afternoon at your leisure. (B)

EAST AFRICA

EAST AFRICA: KENYA & TANZANIA

KENYA

Kenya is a country of extreme "land contrasts". The country straddles the equator, lies between parallel 4 degrees south and north. Kenya is undoubtedly, the primary choice for many travellers seeking a sheer variety of experience in East Africa. There are few, if any, destinations in the world that offer such a diversity of wildlife, scenery and culture. Kenya is the Africa of everyone's dreams. It has broad horizons, wide-open spaces, piercing daylight from an overhead sun, friendly smiling people- and, above all, the chance to view an abundance of wildlife in its natural environment. Almost every known landform on the planet exists within Kenya, a country, from snow-capped mountains and glaciers, to arid deserts, from the dry and dusty savannah plains to the cool fresh waters of lakes and rainforests. A safari into the wilds of Kenya is a journey into nature at its purest. Everywhere you look there is profusion of life...

TANZANIA

Tanzania has a higher percentage of its total area dedicated to the conservation of wildlife than any other country in Africa and numbers among in many reserves some of the most iconic destinations in Africa. The Serengeti, home of the annual great wildebeest migration, offers superb game viewing in a quintessential African landscape, while driving down into the Ngorongoro Crater is a unique and stunning experience. Add to this the Spice islands of Zanzibar and Pemba and you have a safari destination that more than lives up to the high expectations it provokes, somewhere that will leave you with unforgettable memories of Africa and its wildlife.

WHEN TO GO

The most popular time is in the dry season from June to October. But be aware that our midsummer is the African winter and you will need warm clothes for dawn game drives. April and May are best avoided: this is the climax of East Africa's rainy season, when bush roads become impassable and camps close down.

To be sure of seeing the annual wildebeest migration, head for Kenya's Maasai Mara reserve between July and October when the herds spend the dry season crossing and recrossing the Mara River in their search for fresh grazing. As a spectacle it is matched only when upwards of a million wildebeest and 250,000 zebras gather on the rain-soaked plains of the southern Serengeti to give birth in February.

Combinations?

If you like the sound of this but would like to stay longer then do get in touch with us for a tailor-made quote. You can choose to add time on the beach - Zanzibar is easily reached from Nairobi for instance, or maybe you would like more time on safari? Northern Kenya around Laikipia and Lewa combines well with a safari in the Mara. Choice of camps in the Mara

We offer many camps, from small and intimate ones with only four or five tents to slightly larger ones, like Karen Blixen Camp or Governors Camp. These are located throughout the Mara's private conservancies including Naboisho, Mara North and Governors. We also have a number of private safari houses, for example Saruni Mara has an exclusive safari house perfect for a family or group.

In the private conservancies, you tend to fly-in for a safari stay, being hosted by the camp or lodge of your choosing. There are far fewer guests staying in the private conservancies, compared to the National Park, for example in Mara North there is a ratio of 1 guest to 350 acres. We recommend a stay of 3 or 4 nights minimum.

Day 1: Nairobi - Masai Mara Arrive in Nairobi and transfer to Wilson airport for your flight down to the Mara. On arrival here you are met by your safari vehicle and enjoy a game drive en route to the camp. Day 4-5: Depart

BOTSWANA

Four fifths of Botswana lies covered by the largest mantle of sand in the world; the Kalahari. Although Botswana is divided into national parks and private reserves, there are no fences here which mean that the movement of much of the country's wildlife is unrestricted. With a professional safari guide you'll be able to seek out the big game for which Botswana and Africa is famous. Explore on wildlife drives in open-sided 4WD safari vehicles; spot innumerable birds on boat cruises through the Okavango Delta's crystal-clear channels; and glide silently through lily-filled lagoons by canoe.

A land of breathtaking contrasts, Botswana's natural wonders range from the vast salt pans of the Makgadikgadi, with its granite outcrops and twisted baobabs, to the sandy plains of the Kalahari and the lush oasis of the Okavango Delta. The rock paintings of the San Bushmen survive untouched in the Tsodilo Hills, while their way of life continues undisturbed in the remote Kalahari. Nowhere else on the planet can you float between reeded channels in a dugout canoe while around you antelope splash through crystal clear water. Yet Botswana also offers excellent land-based game viewing. The Chobe National Park is home to the world's largest herds of elephant and offers regular sightings of predators, and rare and endangered animals. There is something for everyone in Botswana - photographers will seek out the star beauty of the Kalahari Desert and birdwatchers will flock to the Moremi Game Reserve.

Imagine this- You are sitting back in dug-out canoe, basking in the warmth of the sun, as you glide silently through the water passing water lilies and spotting the occasional reed frog just inches away. You are completely relaxed, totally absorbed in the sights and sounds around you. This is the Okavango Delta – enjoy!

Fancy a night out under the stars? We can arrange a sleep out on a secluded raised deck, complete with comfy bed and ablution facilities nearby. It's the ultimate bush experience, surrounded by unspoilt nature and is sure to be a night to remember. A guide is on hand so you'll be perfectly safe.

INDOCHINA

Meet some of the best kept secrets in Asia in a region that still remains relatively untouched by mass tourism. Hidden for years behind the 'Bamboo Curtain', the countries that make up Indochina are intriguing communities that present a wealth of traditions, treasures and a culture, often with a French colonial past.

Do not always expect the same standard as other parts of Asia as this part of Asia's charm is what makes a visit so unique!

Access into Vietnam has improved and with it, the country's popularity and infrastructure. Today it receives visitors, through the gateway cities of Ho Chi Minh and Hanoi, with genuine smiles that welcome you to a land steeped in tradition and with an appeal that spans all interest and tastes. With 3,000km of coastline, it offers some of Southeast Asia's finest beaches.

The kingdom of Cambodia, was land of the Angkor Kings for more than 500-years and Angkor was the centre of one of the world's great civilisations. The immense and dazzling cities include the capital Phnom Penh, where temples were built in the honour of the gods and the people, decorated with intricate stone carvings for all to see today.

Laos is a combination of beauty and tranquility, towns are less hectic than elsewhere in Asia and the pace of life is as languid as the Mekong River that flows through it. This beautiful country will appeal to the more adventurous visitors accustomed to simpler standards of travel.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC is the second largest, most diverse and sustainable Caribbean island. The south of the island is cupped by the Caribbean Sea, and home to some of the most immaculate powder white beaches. This nation is a mix of vibrant and cultural experiences with some of the best all inclusive properties in the Caribbean. Perfect for couples, families and friends there is something for everyone.

ANGUILLA is the perfect place to escape the rate race. This nearly untouched exclusive island is the most Northern of the Leeward Islands and is very secluded, with miles of untouched beaches and fantastic coral reefs.

Discover Caribbean twin centres

Thinking of holidays in the Caribbean makes your mind think of crystal blue sea, endless sunshine and soft white sand, why not experience two or more Caribbean islands? The culture, history and landscape each nation has to offer, differs from each island with each one offering its own personal charm and welcoming experience. Below is just a taster of some of our favourite suggested combos that can be done.

Barbados (4nts) + Grenada (4nts)

Combine a 4 night stay on Barbados, one of our most loved Caribbean islands, then hop on a short 50 minute inter island flight for a 4 night stay on the quieter 'Spice Island' of Grenada.

Recommended hotel combinations;

OR

Saint Lucia (4nts) + Antigua (4nts)

Barbados (5 nts) & St Vincent & The Grenadines (7 nts)

Combine a 5 night stay in Barbados then hop on a short 40 minute inter island flight to St Vincent. This fantastic combination would be great for those wanting a mix of lively and relaxing in tropical surroundings.

Recommended hotel combinations;

USA & Caribbean combinations

The pulsating cities of the United States of America mixed with the idyllic beaches of the Caribbean, make for the perfect getaway. The two most popular and best cities to combine with The Caribbean islands would be Miami and New York, with many daily flights connecting through from New York and Miami.

New York (4nts) + The Bahamas (7nts)

Combine a 4 night stay in New York followed by a 7 night stay in The Bahamas – easily accessible by a 3 hour flight from New York to The Bahamas.

With over 2,000 years of history, an incredible capital city, amazing beaches and some of the most varying and spectacular landscapes in the world, Mexico has something to cater for everyone's tastes. There has never been a better time to visit this incredible country.

When visiting Mexico it is often the vivid colours that most stand-out most, from the welcoming reds, yellows and oranges of contemporary Mexican architecture to the bright blues and greens of the Caribbean and Pacific Coasts. Mexico is a blend of historical celebration and appreciation of the present. Wherever you travel through Mexico, and there are numerous places that you will want to see, you will find the old complementing the new and vice-versa. Our handpicked properties are not only luxurious but highlight the many wonders on offer in this incredibly diverse country..

Baja Coast

A day tour to the ruins of Teotihuacan is also highly recommended. The Pacific coast, with fabulous beaches and wonderful hotels, offers superb whale-watching opportunities and is the perfect place to relax. Don't forget to visit "The Arch"; a stunning rock formation at the very southern tip of the Baja peninsula. Remember the sun sets in the West. Be prepared for stunning views.

The properties we have selected along the Riviera Maya offer luxurious seclusion and privacy they are close, but not too close, to all the main attractions allowing you to make the most of the area but still enjoy lazy days on pristine beaches. A drive down to coast to Tulum is a great way to visit smaller ruins for the traveler that doesn't want a full day tour. USA

America is a land of primary colours. Whether it's the reds of an Arizona canyon or a New Hampshire fall, the whites of a Rocky Mountain peak or a Florida beach, the blues of the Pacific Ocean or a sierra sky, a hop across the pond allows you to experience this amazing country in glorious technicolour. Alongside a stunning set of visuals, America's soundtrack ranges from a busy New York street to a quiet Louisiana bayou, from the rawness of LA hip hop to a lively Smoky Mountain banjo, while its tastes include the blackberry notes of a Napa Valley Zinfandel and the spice of a Cajun gumbo. You can step out of your car and catch the scent of desert sage in New Mexico or the iodine tang of California surf, and stroke the bark of a venerable redwood or run your hands through prairie sweetgrass.

Unlike many other travel companies that offer the USA as a destination, we tend to steer clear of anonymous mass market hotels, preferring where there's an option to work with small owner-run inns and properties of character. We believe these places add warmth, authenticity and local knowledge which will considerably enrich your holiday experience. Above all, though, we believe that travelling through the USA is simply great fun, and we are always thinking up new ways to inject pleasure and enjoyment into your holiday. So, whether you want to saddle up for a trail ride on a family adventure or take an open-top Mustang down Big Sur on your honeymoon, speed across the Everglades in an airboat or take it slow with a mint julep on the porch, greet a western sunrise from your tipi with a mug of hot coffee or sigh at a Maine sunset from the deck of a lobster pound, get in touch. We're ready to turn your American dream into reality.

TAHITI & HER ISLANDS

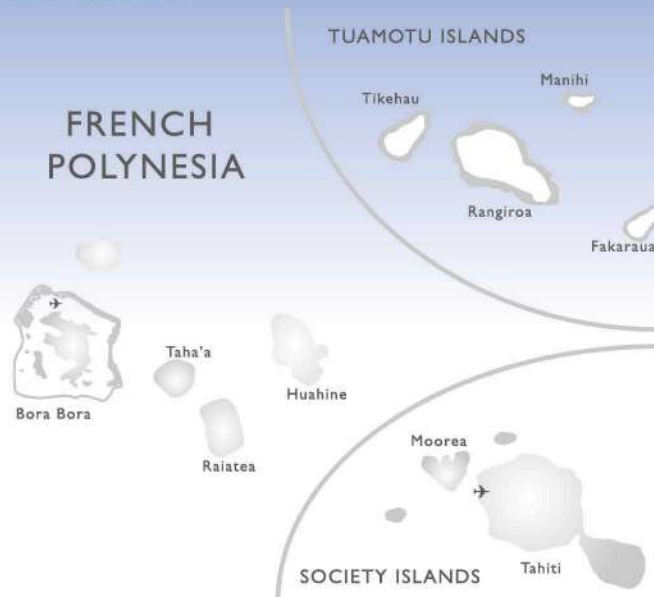

There could hardly be a corner of the world further removed from the everyday than the South Pacific islands of French Polynesia...

French Polynesia's archipelagos form a spectacular chain of 115 rugged volcanic islands and coral atolls. The largest, volcanic in origin, are divided by emerald green valleys clothed in dense rainforests. They push skywards almost sheer from the ocean, framed by seas of improbable blue, sparkling invitingly within their own protective necklace of coral.

Here the warm breezes of the tropics carry the heady perfumes of brilliantly coloured flowers, exotic fruits and spices that flourish amid these benign temperatures. Feathery palms, white sand coral beaches, seas of dazzling turquoise and cobalt blue and coral reefs rich in colourful marine life add their own assault on the senses.

Largest and most developed of the Society Islands archipelago is Tahiti, which combines the unmistakable ambience of the South Seas with the no less indelible style and chic of a former French colony - while, just 12 miles away, is Moorea, with jagged mountain peaks, stunning bays, lagoons and pristine beaches. Bora Bora, 150 miles north-west, lies amid the bluest of lagoons, with a filigree of tiny coral reef-ringed atolls. Its 'neighbours' include timeless Huahine-Nui, Taha'a and Raiatea whilst Tikehau, Fakarava and Rangiroa in the Tuamotu Atoll, are yet more remote and deserted.

GENERAL INFORMATION

WEATHER

All weather information has been sourced by the Meteorological Office, tourist boards and travel organisations and are given as a guide only. A major factor in the success of most holidays is the weather. We give as informative a picture as possible of weather patterns in the destinations we feature. In an age of global warming, such data cannot always be relied upon as a guarantee of specific climate conditions at a given time.

KEY

- C° = Average Daily Temperature
- ☀ = Average Daily Sunshine Hours (this does not reflect hours of daylight)
- ☔ = Average Monthly Rainfall

PASSPORT & VISAS

To ease the stress involved in travelling, please be prepared in advance by confirming that you have all the correct documentation. The advice provided acts a guideline to British and Irish passport holders whose passport has not been endorsed in any way. You should ensure that all travellers have a British passport that must remain valid for at least 6 months after your scheduled return to the UK. Some countries apply different rules so please contact the Embassy of your destination country for current information.

Realising the Dream

To adapt a familiar proverb, 'One man's dream holiday is another man's holiday nightmare!' Each of us has our own perception of what makes a perfect holiday - and no one can impose their opinion upon someone else. Recognising how important choice is in finding the holiday that's 'just right', we offer a huge range of hotels in an impressive portfolio of destinations Worldwide. Together they provide the widest possible choice, whether your idea of the perfect holiday venue is a prestigious luxury resort hotel with every state-of-the-art amenity at your fingertips, or an exclusive escapist hideaway, stylish maybe but simple and suffused with local charm, tranquility and privacy. The descriptions we give are designed to give you a helpful overview of each destination and hotel. More detailed information is shown on our website or the hotel's website - and of course, our knowledgeable consultants are always on hand to assist and guide you. Above all we want you to feel able to make a genuinely informed choice in finding that personal 'dream holiday'.

Safety First

Up-to-date advice on various aspects of security in your intended destination can be obtained from the Foreign & Commonwealth Office website (www.fco.gov.uk) or by telephone on 0845 850 2829.

Weather or Not

A major factor in the success of most holidays is, quite simply, the weather. In an age of 'global warming', however, any data that appears on individual countries website cannot always be a guarantee of specific climate conditions at any time. Nowadays even 'dry' seasons in the tropics can produce unexpected spells of wet weather - though, thankfully, these are normally short-lived! We do strongly recommend that you try to adopt as philosophical approach as possible when the sky is not blue or the sea not calm. Not always easy, of course, since even 'Paradise' can start to look less beautiful when the weather is unfriendly and any problems may begin to seem much more frustrating. Extreme weather: Extreme weather conditions can occur anywhere and at any time - although in some parts of the world the risk may be greater at certain periods of the year. For example, between July and October in the Caribbean there is an increased chance of tropical storms and even severe hurricanes. At such times local authorities, hotels, authorities and our representatives/agents are well prepared and have contingency plans in place. We too, monitor the development of severe weather and, wherever possible, we will keep you informed. Normally however, severely adverse conditions are the exception rather than the rule - and the hundreds of thousands of travellers who visit these regions during the 'low' season can expect to enjoy good weather.

Passports and Visas

Please note that it is your responsibility to ensure that you are in possession of valid passports, visas and any other required documents for entry to the country or countries you will be visiting. If you or any members of your party do not hold a British Passport, you must enquire of the Entry requirement/s with the Embassy of the country you are visiting. We recommend that all Passports are valid for at least 6 months beyond your period of stay and are machine readable and have at least a few blank pages. We cannot accept any liability if you are refused airport check-in or entry into a country for lack of proper documentation. Below are two chargeable visa services to assist, so please visit: www.visacentral.co.uk; www.ctmstravel.com; or other such services of your choice. Travel to USA: The US authorities require advance passenger information (APIS) which will be required at time of booking. British passport holders entering the USA must obtain an ESTA (Electronic System Travel Authorisation), through the Visa Waver Program (WVP) at least 72 hours prior to travel (<https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov>). All non British passport holders must contact the US Embassy for the required entry visas prior to making your booking.

Healthwise

At the time of going to press there is no mandatory vaccination/inoculation requirement when travelling directly from the UK to countries featured in this brochure. However, certain vaccinations/inoculations are recommended for many destinations. Please check with your doctor or local health clinic for up-to-date information or you can visit the National Travel Health Network and Centre (NaTHNaC) website at and visit FCO Travel advice on www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice. Alternatively you can contact the Medical Advisory Service for Travellers Abroad (MASTA) on telephone number 0870 606 2782 or visit their website (www.mastatravelhealth.com). Malaria is a serious hazard in many tropical destinations and it is vital that if you are travelling to such regions you seek professional medical advice on appropriate types of anti-malaria treatment. Pregnancy: If a member of your party is pregnant, they should check with their doctor that it is safe to travel. If they are more than 28 weeks pregnant by the return date, they must obtain a medical certificate prior to departure confirming that they are 'fit to fly'. Tours: Some of the tours may not be suitable if you have any disability please enquire prior to making a booking. While the hotels featured in our brochure undertake to meet fully the required local standards governing health and safety, it should be remembered that in many remote and/or undeveloped locations general in-resort standards may not always fully match those here at home. We do therefore recommend that you always exercise due care to protect your family and yourself throughout your holiday. It is always a sensible precaution while sightseeing or exploring to avoid food or drink where you do not feel reasonably confident of the hygiene standards involved in its preparation. Another wise safeguard is to drink only bottled water (sealed when purchased). Treat the tropical sun with respect, especially during the middle of the day and at all times for a few days after your arrival. This is a time when you should also take things slowly as your systems begin to adapt to your new surroundings. Be prepared for unwelcome insects, especially during the evenings in the tropics, when it is best to cover arms and legs and to ensure that you use a good quality insect repellent. From time to time in some destinations, you may encounter the odd cockroach.

These creatures are endemic to the tropics and the instinctive suspicion that their presence is somehow a reflection on hotel hygiene is - though understandable - usually misguided. Hotels in affected areas normally conduct regular checks and treatments. Birds, too, can sometimes be uninvited visitors at meal-times in open-air dining areas - in spite of the preventative measures taken by hotels, who try to discourage guests from feeding them. Observe hotel warnings on sea conditions - whether these relate to currents, sea-urchins or even temporary pollution, their message should always be heeded. Very Important: It is your responsibility to ensure that all members of your party are fit to travel and meet all health requirements for the destination(s) you will be visiting. Please also allow plenty of time to obtain vaccinations etc. We cannot take any responsibility for costs, delays, or cancellations resulting from your failure to meet these health requirements.

Holiday Insurance

We do not offer Travel Insurance, so we require that all of our customers hold adequate travel insurance from the time of making the booking. When making a booking you will be asked for details of your insurance details so that this can be entered into our records and we will not be held responsible if such information is not forthcoming. Furthermore, we advise that if you intend to participate in any hazardous activity such as Scuba Diving, you should enquire with your insurers for a Special cover and also if your holiday is costing more than £5,000 per person you may require a top-up premium.

Flying Long-Haul

Scheduled airlines normally provide the most comfortable and reliable means of air travel - though only the most dedicated 'aficionado' of flying would see a long-haul flight as an especially pleasurable feature of a holiday. The option of upgrading to a Premium Economy, Business or First Class cabin does however, offer the means to make your flights more enjoyable (see pages 6 -7). Whichever cabin you choose there are also personal steps you can take to mitigate unwanted side-effects from prolonged periods of flying. These can include exercises; avoid high alcohol intake; drink plenty of water to prevent dehydration and the possible risk of DVT (Deep Vein Thrombosis). It is further advised that you avoid scuba diving at least 24 hours prior to flying. Many airline 'in flight' magazines, videos and leaflets give further advice about this. An increasing number of airlines operate 'codeshare' flights with partner carriers (e.g., to Mauritius from Paris on Air Mauritius/Air France services, to the USA on British Airways/American Airlines services or Virgin Atlantic/Delta services. If this factor might affect your choice of flight then you should check with us at the time of booking. Today's airline security constraints mean that great care should be taken in the way you pack your luggage. Hand baggage should be kept to a minimum. In Economy Class this is generally one small bag weighing no more than 5kgs - your travel documents will give specific information for the flights you have booked. There are currently restrictions on the carriage of liquids and you are advised to check before purchasing liquids at airports when transiting en-route. Keep your belongings with you at all times, and never agree to carry items for other people. Passports and jewellery, on the other hand, should be kept with you and NOT in your checked luggage. Flight delays can and do occur from time to time and in such circumstances the provision of meals and/or hotel accommodation remains at the discretion of the airline. Please also bear in mind that if long flight delays result in lost holiday time it is not possible to claim for unused hotel accommodation as the hotels do 'protect' rooms for delayed arrivals and do not re-sell them. Equally, non EU airlines are under no obligation to offer compensation relating to flight delays. Where appropriate, such claims should always be made to your travel insurance company. Neither we nor our overseas agents have direct control over seat allocation by the airlines, even when the latter have confirmed pre-requested seating. It can happen that such requests are not available at check-in. To reduce the risks of disappointment we advise to check in on-line when possible otherwise do check-in as early as possible.

Flight Itineraries

Some flights featured in this brochure are 'direct', i.e., with no change of aircraft en-route, although stops en-route to refuel or to pick up passengers may sometimes be made. We do not publish details here as flight schedules are subject to change within the validity of this brochure. We will gladly supply information current at the time of enquiry. When traveling with some airlines - such as Air France, Emirates, Etihad, Qatar, Oman Air - flights from the UK will be via that carrier's home base, where a change of aircraft will usually be made. In such cases this will be shown as two separate flight numbers on your Confirmation Invoice. Two separate flight numbers on your Confirmation Invoice.

Air Tickets & Baggage

Scheduled airlines normally operate a strict policy requiring that your flight ticket be issued in the same name as your passport. It is very important that the name you give to us at the time of booking is the same as that shown on your passport (even if this is your maiden name and you have since married), as this will be used for all official documentation. Should we need to re-issue tickets because names have been supplied incorrectly, this will incur an amendment and rebooking fee. Your air ticket specifies your Free Baggage Allowance (normally 20kgs in Economy Class, 30kgs in Business Class and 40kgs in First Class). Special items such as golf clubs, wheelchairs, surfboards and pushchairs can be carried - but please check with your airline(s) prior to travel as each may have a different policy and may apply excess baggage charges for certain items. Furthermore, our resort representatives/agents may have to make alternative vehicle arrangements for carrying any large items and a supplementary charge may apply for this. Please ensure, therefore, that you advise us in advance of travel, if you are intending to travel with any especially bulky luggage items. If you have missing luggage or none at destination, please contact the airline representative when still in the customs area and they will raise a query using your luggage tag number/s and the type. Once traced they will deliver to your hotel.

Accommodation Descriptions

The hotel descriptions in our hotel descriptions are approved by each hotel prior to Publication. Please remember that any photograph of a specific room type may not be exactly representative of all rooms in that category. A 'sea-facing' or 'sea-view' room may not necessarily be directly beside the sea but instead may offer a side view of the water in the distance, or one partially obscured by foliage, which can grow very quickly in tropical climates. The listing of facilities shown in our hotel descriptions does not necessarily mean that they are all included in the price of your holiday. For example, bedroom facilities may include a minibar but it is usual for a charge to be made for any items consumed even if you are on 'All Inclusive' facilities. Similarly some hotels charge for the use of a safe, or for the hire of DVDs/Videos, or for the use of some TV channels, or for Internet access. Charges may also apply to some of the hotels' general facilities such as spa treatments, golf green fees, the hire of tennis rackets or the use of certain water sports (especially if motorised). You must settle charges for such items directly in resort. Occasionally a specific facility may be withdrawn by a hotel during the validity of the brochure. Once we are made aware of this we will advise all affected clients in advance of travel. It is also possible that on occasions of inclement weather or unusual tides, hotel amenities may be temporarily curtailed or suspended without notice. This is normally for the safety and well-being of guests. At other times sheer demand can create pressure upon certain facilities (especially where these are free of charge to guests) and it may not always be possible to enjoy these amenities immediately or without a time restriction. The use of the terms 'free', 'complimentary' or 'unlimited' is not intended to imply instant or 24-hour availability of the amenity concerned. In many cases, too, there are age or experience restrictions on certain facilities and the providers of these reserves the right to refuse access. This is especially true of diving - where facilities may be available only to those holding internationally recognised qualifications/certificates. Many hotels sub-contract to an independent local operator for sporting facilities offered at or near the hotel. Guests may be asked to sign an indemnity form before being allowed to use these facilities. It is your personal duty of care to ensure that your personal travel insurance has adequate cover for any activity.

Brochure Accuracy

We have taken all reasonable care to ensure that the descriptions and opinions contained in this brochure are as accurate as possible at the time of printing (April 2015).

The descriptions and information contained in this brochure are based upon the latest information available at the time of publication. However, changes may occur as hotels are always updating facilities; building works outside the hotel's jurisdiction, we will endeavour to inform you as soon as possible and if time permits. Facilities, services, schedules, owners, operators and even laws can change during the validity of a brochure, however, and we undertake to do our best to advise you of any significant changes that may have occurred by the time of your booking (or prior to departure if your booking has already been made). Please note that we cannot be held responsible for the accuracy of any descriptions or information published in any third party brochure or promotional literature. Images depicted throughout this brochure or our website is courtesy of respective country tourist boards, hotel suppliers and other libraries.

Accommodation Costs

Unless otherwise stated, all prices that we quote are per Person based on sharing a twin or double room. Prices for hotel single rooms are normally higher than those based on twin/double rooms and this is usually reflected as a supplement. Most often this is because hotels tend to allocate single travellers a twin room for sole use. Even in the few cases where hotels do have dedicated single rooms, however, the associated costs in running and maintaining these rooms is greater than it would be for half a twin room. Conversely, where the standard twin/double room is large enough to accommodate a third or fourth person, the price for these additional persons is usually reduced. It should be noted however, that in most cases (especially in North America), this assumes that the third and/or fourth person will use existing bedding, e.g. the two double, queen-size or king-size beds already in the room. Where guests prefer not to share beds, extra bed/s (rollaway/sofa beds) may be available at an extra charge, though small and less than occupying a separate room. Infant cots (cribs) can usually be provided for a small additional cost.

Children

All children will need to hold their own passport and cannot be added to their parents' passports. Minors travelling without their parents (e.g. with other family members or friends) will need to carry documentation giving the legal consent of their absent parents. Please check the Foreign Office link to your destination country's website for more details. For infants under 2 years at time of travel we charge a nominal sum for air travel, the level of which will depend upon the airline and class of travel. Please note that if an infant occupies an airline seat then a higher child price will apply. Some hotels may charge a nominal fee for a cot, which will be payable locally. Different airlines and hotels apply different policies on child reductions. To ensure that you receive the best possible value, we will be glad to quote reductions individually for any children in your party. Exact reductions depend upon the airline(s)/hotel(s) and the number of children. For children aged between 2 and 11 years (and sometimes older) at time of travel and sharing a room with their parents we can normally offer significantly reduced inclusive prices. If accommodation is booked for two adults and one/two children (or an additional adult) sharing one room then an extra bed is provided -but this may not always be a full-size single bed, but rather a rollaway folding bed (or even a camp-bed in style). Hotels will normally allow only one rollaway/extra bed in a room and will expect any second child booked to share existing bedding. Sometimes children may share a double sofa bed instead of a rollaway but not in addition to the extra bed. If these arrangements do not seem suitable we advise that you book a second room (normally adjacent or inter-connecting, subject to availability and shown on your Confirmation Invoice). NB: Cots, child car seats or highchairs provided by hotels or our in-resort suppliers may not conform to British Safety Standards and as such should be checked before use.

Technical Hitches and Maintenance

Though the advance of technology has brought new and normally dependable standards of supply to hotels in remote locations, occasional interruptions to the supply of water and electricity can happen. In some exceptional and normally 'one off' cases they may be restricted at certain periods of the day in order to conserve necessary resources (details will normally be given to guests by the hotel). Properties located on mid-ocean islands can sometimes be vulnerable in this respect. Energy management in the interests of the comfort of all guests is the hotel's priority. Please also remember that hotels do not necessarily have heating in swimming pools at cooler times of the year. If such a consideration is important for you do please enquire when booking. To maintain the highest possible standards, hotels must carry out maintenance and repairs from time to time. Whenever we are advised in advance by a hotel of pre-planned work of this nature that may affect normal conditions (or when in some cases we are told of essential force majeure repairs being undertaken with little advance warning) we will always advise you of this on your Confirmation Invoice, or separately in writing if this has already been issued. Sometimes building work may occur on private land neighbouring a hotel (and over which the hotel has no direct control). Our local representatives/agents will normally monitor such developments and inform us accordingly so that we can keep prospective guests of the hotel fully informed. Travellers should also keep in mind that sometimes even when hotel rooms with air-conditioning have individual controls, the units may be switched off at times during the day at the discretion of hotel management, for reasons of energy conservation, especially when rooms are unoccupied.

Resolving Problems

Once you have arrived in your holiday destination, if you feel unhappy with any aspect of the arrangements that we have made on your behalf please immediately inform the hotel, relevant supplier, or our local representative/agent so that they have the opportunity to resolve the problem on the spot. Failure to do this will not only increase the risk of the matter spoiling your holiday but may prejudice any attempted retrospective claim made after your return.

Special Requests

Provided that they are advised to us at the time of booking, we will always endeavour to obtain special requests (such as diets on flights, room locations, adjoining rooms, twin/double beds, etc.), although we cannot guarantee provision of these. These requests will be noted on your Confirmation Invoice and subsequently on correspondence or vouchers to the appropriate hotel or airline. Whilst we can often pre-book airline seats, airlines will not usually guarantee the provision of such requests and you are therefore strongly advised to check-in early for your flight to claim these. Requests for special leg-room or emergency exit seats can only be confirmed at check-in by the airline and may charge a fee. If any member of your party has a disability or special need of which the airline or hotel should be made aware please notify us at the time of booking.

Early Arrivals/Late Departures

Most hotels have an afternoon check-in time and a 12 noon (or earlier) check-out policy. If your flight arrives at your destination in the early morning, we recommend that you consider pre-booking and paying for your room from the previous night, similarly, if your return flight departs in the evening and you wish to retain your room beyond the normal check-out time please consider pre-booking an extra night or a day-room (excludes meals) at the end of your stay. Some hotels do offer a 'departures' room for guests to shower and change before a flight.

Meal Plans

Many hotels offer a choice of meal plans and these are indicated in the individual hotel descriptions shown in this brochure.

Room Only:- Meals not included.

Breakfast:- Continental/American breakfast included.

Half Board:- Continental/American breakfast and table d'hote dinner included. N.B. when on half board dinner option cannot be used for lunch).

Full Board:- Continental/American breakfast, table d'hote lunch and table d'hote dinner included.

All Inclusive:- see below.

Unless otherwise indicated, where we refer to breakfast this is generally continental style. In reality though many hotels now include a self-service buffet breakfast in place of the more basic continental style, thus giving you more choice.

Should you decide to order items 'a la carte', these will usually be charged as locally payable extras and credit or partial credit may not be given where the continental or buffet style breakfast is not taken. Similarly, where lunch or dinner is included, this usually means table d'hote meals (from a set menu) and very often these meals can be taken only in a designated restaurant. Where you choose to dine 'a la carte' or in one of the hotel's other restaurants, it is often possible to receive a partial credit against any 'table d'hote' meals not taken but this and any additional costs must be arranged and paid for locally.

Where we refer to 'All-Inclusive' this normally means that all meals, snacks, alcoholic and soft drinks are included and very often other additional facilities – such as non-motorised water sports, land sports and tips. As with Half Board and Full Board dining plans, meals will usually be 'table d'hote' and restricted to specified restaurant or restaurants. Drinks will usually be limited to local beers, spirits and soft drinks plus house wines. Some hotels do include brand name drinks and in some cases even Champagne. It should not be assumed that because a hotel is 'All-Inclusive' food or beverages mentioned are available 24 hours a day. We will be pleased to give you full details of exactly what is included of your chosen hotel.

Special festive Gala Meals such as Christmas and New Year's Eve dinners may be organised by hotels from time to time. Any charge not prepaid as a supplement and shown as included on your Confirmation Invoice will be advised to you on arrival and be payable locally.

Special diets of any kind (including vegetarian) cannot normally be catered for fully within the scope of a table d'hote menu and should not be expected to compare in variety and scope with normal meals served. In such cases it may be wise at time of booking to request for further information.

Hotel Classification

Throughout the world different countries, hotel associations and licensing/grading authorities establish their own star ratings for hotels and accommodation. Unfortunately these grading are not always based on the same criteria and so could be misleading if you are not aware of the basis on which they have been evaluated. Where the hotel descriptions in this brochure include the terms '5-Star' or 'Boutique' these are based entirely on our own opinion and are intended to represent an impartial guide for you in choosing your hotel.

By '5-Star' we mean Luxury hotels with guest rooms appointed to the highest standard, top-quality service, dining and general facilities. By 'Boutique' we mean hotels that are generally of excellent standard and in very high demand due to their individuality. Often these are relatively small and possibly family-run hotels. It could be that the standard of accommodation is 5-Star but the general facilities are limited compared with a traditional 5-Star hotel and sometimes guest rooms may be of different size, have different views or even be of different standard. In all cases you can be confident that the properties we have selected enjoy excellent reputations and offer what we consider to be a high quality of comfort, service, amenities and general operation.

All the countries we feature celebrate National or Independence Day and also observe Religious days linked to lunar calendar. During that time some facilities and activities may be restricted and we expect that you show total respect. During Ramadan month eating, smoking or drinking in public areas can cause offence but it is still possible within the hotels. Other religious festivities can be fun and chaotic and yet great to join in!

On occasion we may also be required to provide information to security or credit checking companies, public authorities such as customs/immigration if requested by them, or as required by law. We may have to send your details to countries whose controls on data protection may not be as strong as the legal requirements in this country although we will not pass any information to any person who is not responsible for part of your travel arrangements. We may also use your details to give you information about travel-related offers, products and services that become available from us and our travel partners. Prices shown in this brochure or on our Website are from prices, which make up the inclusive cost are based on special contracted rates. Verbal or Website price quotations will be regarded as provisional until confirmed in writing by way of a Confirmation Invoice. In the unlikely event of an administrative/system error resulting in an incorrect price/s we reserve the right to correct the price. We have no control over prices that may be charged at the destination and can accept no responsibility or liability if these differ from those quoted. The price of your travel arrangements is subject to Surcharges for increases in:

(1) transportation costs (e.g. fuel, scheduled air fare and any other airline surcharges which we are obliged to collect) (2) Government action, such as increases in APD (Air Passenger Duty) or any other government imposed increases (3) currency in relation to adverse exchange rate variations to your particular package. In any of the above case, Sunset Travel Limited will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the confirmed holiday price, which excludes insurance premiums and any amendment charges. Only amounts in excess of this 2% will be surcharged, but where a surcharge is payable, there will be an administration charge of £1.00 per person together with an amount to cover agent's commission. If this means paying a surcharge of more than 10% on the previously invoiced holiday price, you will be entitled to cancel your holiday with a full refund of all monies paid, except for any amendment charges. Should you decide to cancel for such a reason, you must exercise your right to do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on the invoice.

63 days or more	Deposit only
62 - 43 days	50% of holiday cost

WE DO NOT ARRANGE INSURANCE COVER. WE STRONGLY RECOMMEND THAT YOU TAKE OUT FULL CANCELLATION INSURANCE TO COVER FOR ANY EVENTUALITIES AND IT'S YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DO SO.

5. AMENDMENTS BY YOU

If, after our Confirmation Invoice has been issued, you wish to change any part of your holiday arrangements, or to change to another of our holidays, or to change departure date, we will do our utmost to make the changes, provided that notification is received in writing at least 8 weeks before departure. This must be accompanied by a payment of £100 per booking to cover our administration costs, plus a further sum for any additional holiday cost incurred.

Alterations cannot be made within 8 weeks of departure. Any such request for alteration will be treated as a cancellation of the original booking and will be subject to the cancellation charges set out in Paragraph 4 above. Please note that certain travel arrangements, e.g. Apex tickets, Tactical fares and Special Offers are subject to the carrier's conditions of carriage and cannot be changed after a reservation has been ticketed; any alteration request will incur a 100% cancellation charge.

6. AMENDMENTS BY US

It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your holiday, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, changes may have to be made (e.g. to itineraries, hotel accommodation, flights or other arrangements), which we reserve the right to make at any time. Changes are normally minor (such as flight times or suspension of certain hotel facilities) and we will advise you or your Travel Agent at the earliest possible date.

If your accommodation has to be changed, we will do our utmost to provide accommodation of a similar or higher grade. Flight timing and carriers in the brochure are subject to change as a result of airline procedures and these details are given for guidance only. Final details will be shown on your itinerary sent with your travel tickets. If a significant change becomes necessary, we will inform you or your Travel Agent as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. Should a major change occur (such as the alteration of your outward/return flight by more than 12 hours, changes of resort or reduction in the standard of accommodation), then provided that it does not arise through circumstances amounting to Force Majeure (see section (b) below), you will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, booking another holiday with us, or cancelling your holiday and receiving a full refund. If you choose another holiday that is more expensive you must pay any difference, but if it is cheaper we will make the appropriate refund. In all cases, we will pay compensation as detailed below:

Period before Departure within which a major change is notified to you or your travel agent.	Compensation per Person
Up to 63 days	NIL
62-43 days	£20
42-32 days	£25
31-15 days	£30
14 - 0 days	£35

Important Notes

a) Compensation payments will not apply if payment of your holiday has not been received by SUNSET Travel Limited by the stipulated payment date.

b) Compensation will not be payable if SUNSET Travel Limited is forced to cancel or in any way change your holiday due to war, threat of war, riot, civil strife, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions including acts of God, epidemic/pandemic illness, technical or maintenance problems with transport, changes of schedule or operational decisions of scheduled or other airlines, or other circumstances amounting to Force Majeure. SUNSET Travel Limited reserves the right in any circumstances to cancel your holiday, in which case we will offer an alternative holiday of comparable standard or will refund in full all monies paid. In no case will we cancel your holiday less than 9 weeks before the scheduled departure date, except for reasons of Force Majeure, or failure on your part to pay the final balance. If a cancellation occurs within 9 weeks of departure for reasons other than Force Majeure, compensation will be payable in accordance with clause 6. In accordance with Regulation (EC) 2111/2005, Article 9, we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer. Please refer to our airline's page for the carriers we use or visit our website.

7. AIRLINE

When you travel with an airline, the 'Conditions of Carriage' of that carrier apply, some of which may limit liability. This brochure is the responsibility of SUNSET Travel Limited and is not issued on behalf of, nor commits the airlines mentioned within it, nor any airline whose services are used in the course of the holiday. Please note that in accordance with the Air Navigation Order, an infant must be less than 2 years of age on the date of the outbound flight to qualify for infant status.

8. OUR LIABILITY TO YOU

a) We accept responsibility for ensuring that the holiday that you book with us is supplied as described in this brochure and that the services we are contractually obliged to provide are to a reasonable standard. If any part of your holiday is not provided as promised, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your holiday. We accept responsibility for the acts and/or omissions of our employees, agents and suppliers save where they lead to death, injury or illness, except as provided in the following paragraph.

b) We accept responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees or agents, together with our suppliers and subcontractors, servants and/or agents of the same whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of any part of your holiday that we are contractually obliged to provide. We will, accordingly, pay to our client such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English law.

c) In respect of carriage by air, sea and rail and the provision of accommodation, our liability in all cases will be limited in the manner provided by the relevant international convention and we are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these or any conventions.

d) We will not be liable where any failure in the performance of the contract is due to you, or a third party unconnected with the provision of the travel arrangements and where the failure is unforeseeable or unavoidable; or unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all due care had been exercised; or an event which we or our suppliers, even with all due care, could not foresee or forestall.

e) If any client suffers death, accidental illness or personal injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of the foreign inclusive holiday arrangement or excursion arranged through us, we shall, at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance to help in resolving any claim you may have against a Third Party provided we are advised of the incident within 90 days of the occurrence. Where legal action is contemplated, authority must be obtained prior to commencement of proceedings and be subject to your undertaking to assign any costs recovered or any benefits received under an appropriate insurance policy to ourselves. This financial assistance is to a maximum sum of £5,000 in total per booking.

f) Under EU law (Regulation (EC) No. 261/2004) you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines, however reimbursement in such cases will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in paragraph 6 above.

If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Aviation Consumer Advocacy Panel at www.caa.co.uk

g) Passport (we recommend that all Passports are valid for at least 6 months and is machine readable). Health vaccination certificate (as and when required) and all necessary Visas requirements and other Immigration requirements are your sole responsibility and you should confirm these with the relevant Embassies and/or Consulates. Some countries and airlines now require additional passenger information (API) and we will inform you and failure to provide this may result in you being denied boarding. We do not accept any responsibility if you cannot travel because you have not complied with any of the above advice. You need to advise us at time of booking if you do not have a UK Passport.

9. COMPLAINTS

Whilst we endeavor to ensure that your booked holiday runs smoothly, there may be instances when it does not. If that becomes the case, please inform the relevant supplier (e.g. your hotel) and our local representative immediately, who will endeavour to put things right or contact us in the UK via email to customercare@sunset.co.uk or by phone (44) 208 774 7106 or fax (44) 208 774 9944. It is, therefore a condition of this contract that you communicate any problem to the supplier or our local representative whilst in resort and obtain a written report. If your complaint cannot be resolved locally, you must follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Care Department giving your booking reference number and all other relevant information. If you fail to follow this simple procedure, we cannot accept responsibility as we have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify the problem whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service by ABTA's 'Code of Conduct'. If we cannot agree how to resolve your complaint, providing the dispute fits within the rules of the scheme, you can use the Arbitration Scheme devised by ABTA which is run independently. It is a simple and inexpensive method of arbitration on documents alone with restricted liability on you for cost. Further information on the Code and ABTA's assistance in resolving disputes can be found on www.abta.com. We reserve the rights to share information with other operators regarding complaints.

10. THE CONTRACT

This contract is made on the terms of these Booking Conditions, which are governed by English law and the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so. This clause does not apply if your booking was made within 9 weeks of Travel.

11. FLIGHTS

a) Delays: most flights featured in this brochure are by reputable scheduled airlines who will usually provide refreshments, meals or accommodation when there is any substantial flight delay and when this is possible to arrange. We do not arrange to provide refreshments, meals or accommodation ourselves if there is any delay at the outward or homeward points of departure when these facilities are not offered by the airline.

b) Flight Routings

- Direct Flight: A flight with no change of aircraft en route, but stops are possible for operational reason at short notice or without notice.
- Non-Stop Flight: A flight without stops except for operational reason.
- Flight via: A flight via a point as stated in the itinerary and where there is at least one aircraft change en route.

c) Flight Changes. In the event of a change of airline, aircraft type or destination airport, cancellation by you of your contract will be subject to our normal cancellation charges. In circumstances where we are advised by the airline of such a change we will endeavor to advise you or your Travel Agent. Minor timing changes, if known, will be shown on your flight ticket/s and itinerary. You should check this carefully on receipt.

12. TICKETING DEADLINES

Tickets are normally issued four to five weeks prior to your departure. There may be occasions beyond our control where we may be required by a partner airline to issue your tickets prior to the normal ticketing deadline. In such circumstances we will request full payment from you for the flight portion of your holiday prior to issuing tickets and failure to provide this payment may result in your flights increasing in cost or being cancelled. Special advance purchase fares may also require prompt payment and ticketing and one of our consultants will advise accordingly. If you are leaving the address given at the time of booking please advise us in advance.

13. DATA PROTECTION POLICY

Where your holiday is outside the European Economic Area (EEA), controls on data protection in your destination may not be as strong as the legal requirements in this country. We will not, however, pass any information onto any person who is not responsible for part of your travel arrangements. This applies to any sensitive information that you give to us such as details of any disabilities or dietary/religious requirements. If we cannot pass this information to the relevant suppliers, whether in the EEA or not, we cannot provide your booking. In making this booking, you consent to this information being passed on to the relevant persons. You are entitled to a copy of your information held by us.
